10. Once a grant agreement has been accepted, it cannot be altered or changed by an agreement holder. However, circumstances may arise where the agreement needs to be amended. In such situations, the agreement holder must contact a CWRG Program Manager to discuss the circumstances that require a change in the agreement.

Any changes to an accepted agreement are strictly at the discretion of the CWRG. If amendments are permitted, changes will be made by the CWRG. These changes will trigger a new agreement.
